I took Cousin Martha to Plainfield yesterday to call on Uncle Will Carpenter. I felt a sigh of relief when that trip was nicely accomplished.
I am trying to get up now to drive to Madison this P. M., to see the Voorhes family. I hate to do it alone & there seems no one to go with me - I am but a feeble & timid creature. Willie feels - his time & so can not go - Thank you, Jim, for all the thoughtfulness you have shown for my comfort & pleasure.

Yours cordially
James Earl Hall.
